How long did that take?

Ancient Jericho

Toward the end of the Bronze Age

Archaeological excavations reveal that Jericho was violently destroyed sometime toward the end of the Bronze Age. The walls seem to have been thrown down by sudden force, as if by an earthquake. Charred wood shows that what was left of the city was burned. Excavators have also found food supplies buried in the destroyed city, which shows it was not captured by siege.

The results are listed with verse numbers and text:

- Jos 2:1 Then Joshua the son of Nun sent two men as spies secretly from Shittim, saying, "Go, view the land, especially Jericho." So they went and came into the house of a harlot whose name was Rahab, and lodged there.
- Jos 2:3 And the king of Jericho sent word to Rahab, saying, "Bring out the men who have come to you, who have entered your house, for they have come to search out all the land."
- Jos 6:17 "The city shall be under the ban, it and all that is in it belongs to the LORD; only Rahab the harlot^[fn] and all who are with her in the house shall live, because she hid the messengers whom we sent.
- Jos 6:23 So the young men who were spies went in and brought out Rahab and her father and her mother and her brothers and all she had; they also brought out all her relatives and placed them outside the camp of Israel.
- Jos 6:25 However, Rahab the harlot and her father's household and all she had, Joshua^[fn] spared; and she has lived in the midst of Israel to this day, for she hid the messengers whom Joshua sent to spy out
